North Myrtle Beach
High School

North Myrtle Beach,
South Carolina

Throughout the school year students experience many ups and downs and changes in their scholastic and personal lives. Yet, there exists a constant change that often goes unnoticed, and surprisingly, in so far as it pertains to everyone, the four seasons are more than mere divisions of the year. They have a great affect on one's life style, not only in the clothes we wear, but also in the activities in which we participate.

Fall signifies the start of school with football games and clubs being organized. Basketball and exam time take over during the somewhat chilly winter months, and everyone waits hopefully for the first signs of spring. Resembling the emergence of a butterfly from a cocoon, students become more rambunctious, taking part in tennis, golf, track-and all the time elated about the prospect of closing another school year and beginning a fantastic summer on the beach.

This is pretty much the role seasons play during our education, but seasons also can be categorized in relation to life in general. We, as students, are presently in the spring of our lives, with summer, fall, and winter to come. As we go through our "seasons" may we cherish each one deservingly and prosper.

Dedication

Once in a while a school is fortunate enough to acquire a teacher who is not just an instructor to students, but also a counselor and a friend — a teacher who is a human being with a soul, concerned for others in the school and community. Somehow, for some lucky reason, North Myrtle Beach High School has been blessed with not just one, but two of this breed of teachers. They are Teresa and Rivers Lynch.

As teachers, along with being a team of coach and wife, they have, together and individual, won the respect and love from the student body of N.M.B.

Because of their dedication to the school, We, the Annual Staff, dedicate this edition of the yearbook to them.

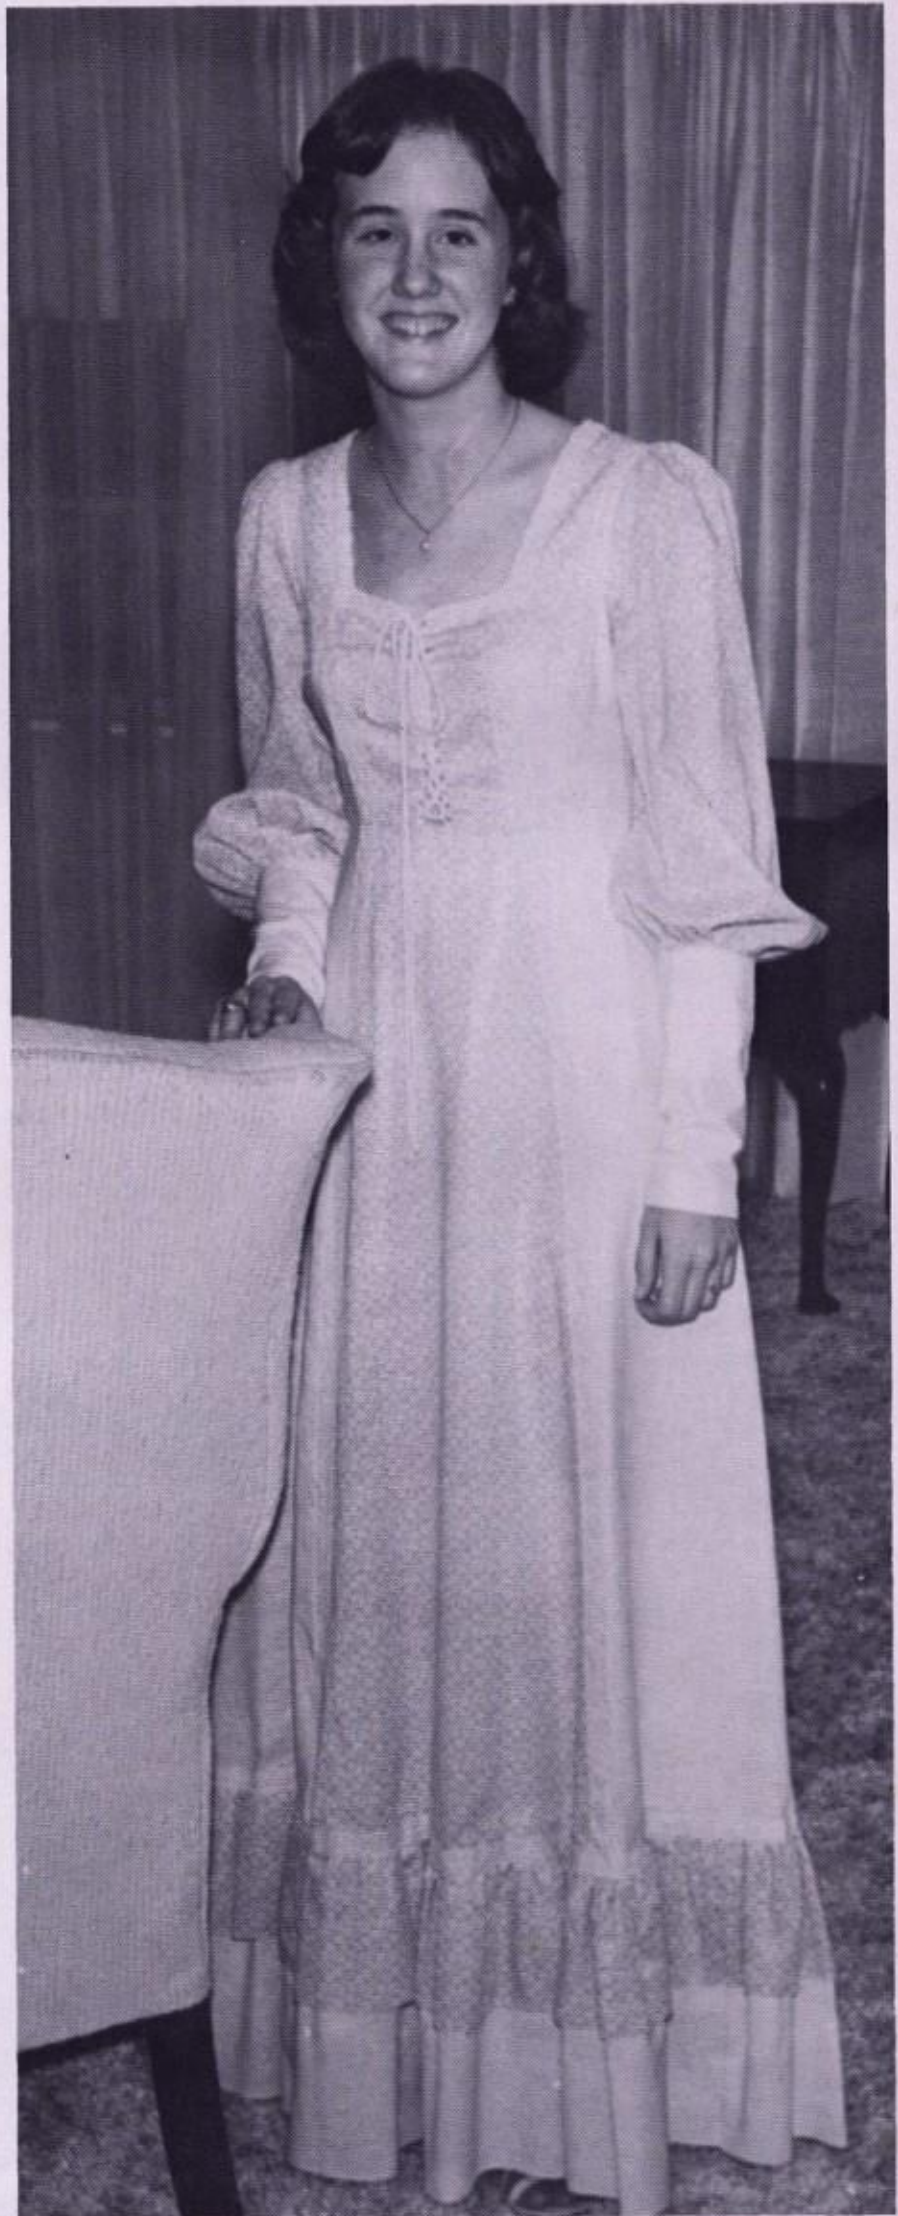

Teresa and Rivers Lynch, we wish not only to dedicate this annual to you, but also to give you our love for what you have meant to us.

"Miss Chief"

The title "Miss Chief" is given to a senior girl who is admired and respected by both her fellow students and teachers. Members of the senior class make nominations and then the faculty makes the final choice.

This extreme honor is bestowed upon Nancy Shultz, honoring her for her scholarship, leadership, and service to N.M.B.

And Faculty

Williams Creates
New Atmosphere

In a society built upon change and diversity, it appears that the Fates have dealt North Myrtle Beach High School its best hand yet. Our vocational and educational programs have grown rapidly and steadily since September and students appear to be enjoying school much more.

Credit for a lot of this goes to our new administration and especially to our new principal, Mr. George L. Williams.

Mr. Williams has served as a cornerstone in the building of a firm learning foundation here at N.M.B.H.S. and his inspired endeavors to mold this school into the solid oneness of teachers and students that it should be have thus far been achieved. All in all, in his first year as a Chief, George L. Williams has made an impressionable showing as principal of North Myrtle Beach High.

N.M.B. Gets Two Assistant Principals

Two people who proved indispensable in keeping N.M.B.H.S. running smoothly and efficiently were our assistant principals, Mr. Moore and Mrs. Ward. Mrs. Ward spends much of her time making certain that the buses are rolling. Mr. Moore's pet project is seeing that the lunch line is moving orderly.

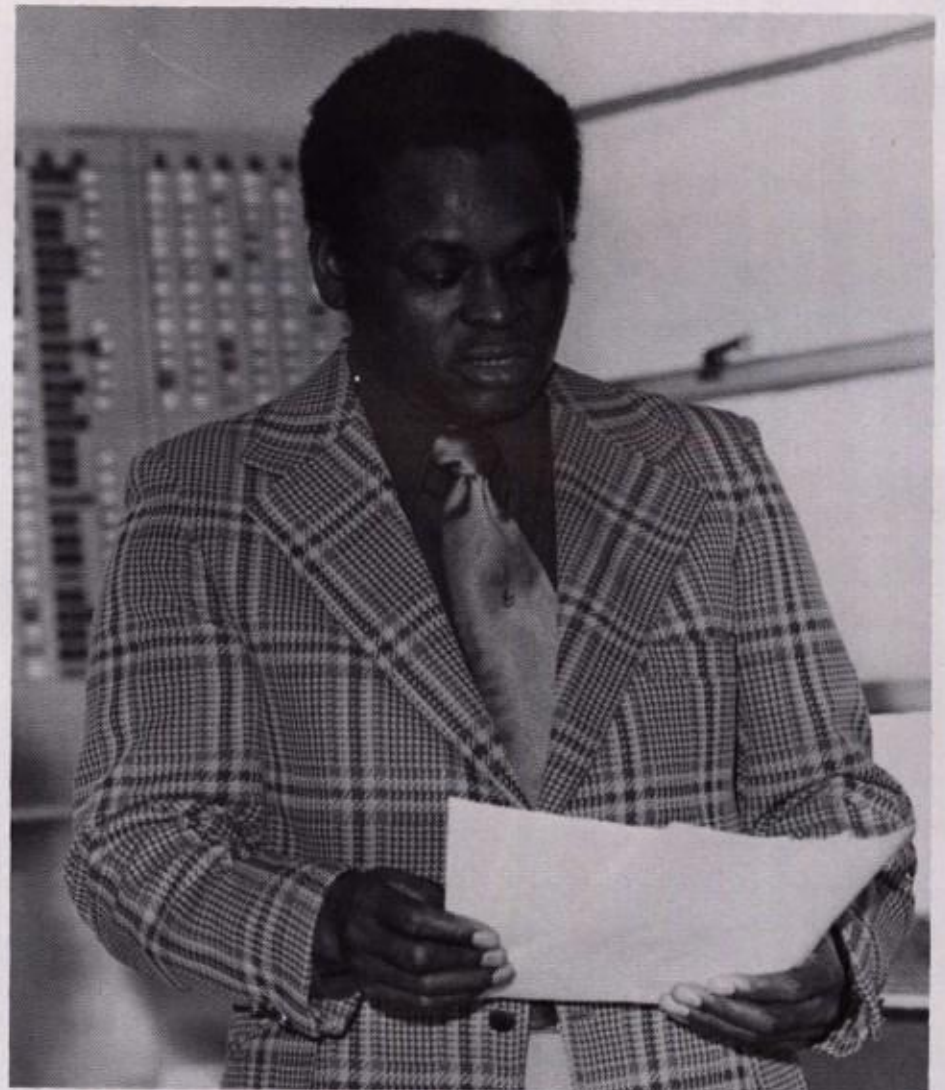

These are some of their minor services to the school of North Myrtle Beach High. Still, if we were to list how indebted the school is to these two, we could not. We are grateful for their many important tasks, without which the school would not function properly.

J. V. Teams Win Conference Titles

Nathan Livingston scored 16 points to lead the North Myrtle Beach Junior Varsity Boys team past Floyds 47-34 to win the 7-AA Division Championship. Jimmy Vaught and Tim Gore added 12 and 10 points respectively, and Mac Donald pulled down 17 rebounds as the Chiefs dominated the action. The JV Boys enjoyed another fine season under the leadership of Coach Jim Floyd. They finished the season with a 13-3 overall record and 8-2 in the conference.

The JV Chiefettes wound up a great season as 7-AA Division Champs by beating Floyds 49-14. Ruthene Wilson, Ruthenia Chestnut, and Sandra Chestnut led the team in scoring. Ballhandling ability and a pressure-zone defense were provided by Betty Cox and Penny Morton. Cheves Ann Vereen, Lena Bellamy, and Angeline Edge gave the team excellent reserve strength. The JV Chiefettes finished with a 6-4 overall record and a 4-0 conference mark.

7AA Champs

The Chiefettes used good defense, strong rebounding, and double figure scoring by Ina Livingston, Eva Gause, and Carrie Chestnut to beat Andrews in the first round of the 7-AA Conference Tournament.

Balanced scoring and big second and third quarters gave them a hard-fought 27-22 victory over Rains-Centenary for the 7-AA Conference Championship.

Ina Livingston and Karen Cox scored thirty points between them as the Chiefettes coasted by Battery Park in the first round of the Lower State playoffs.

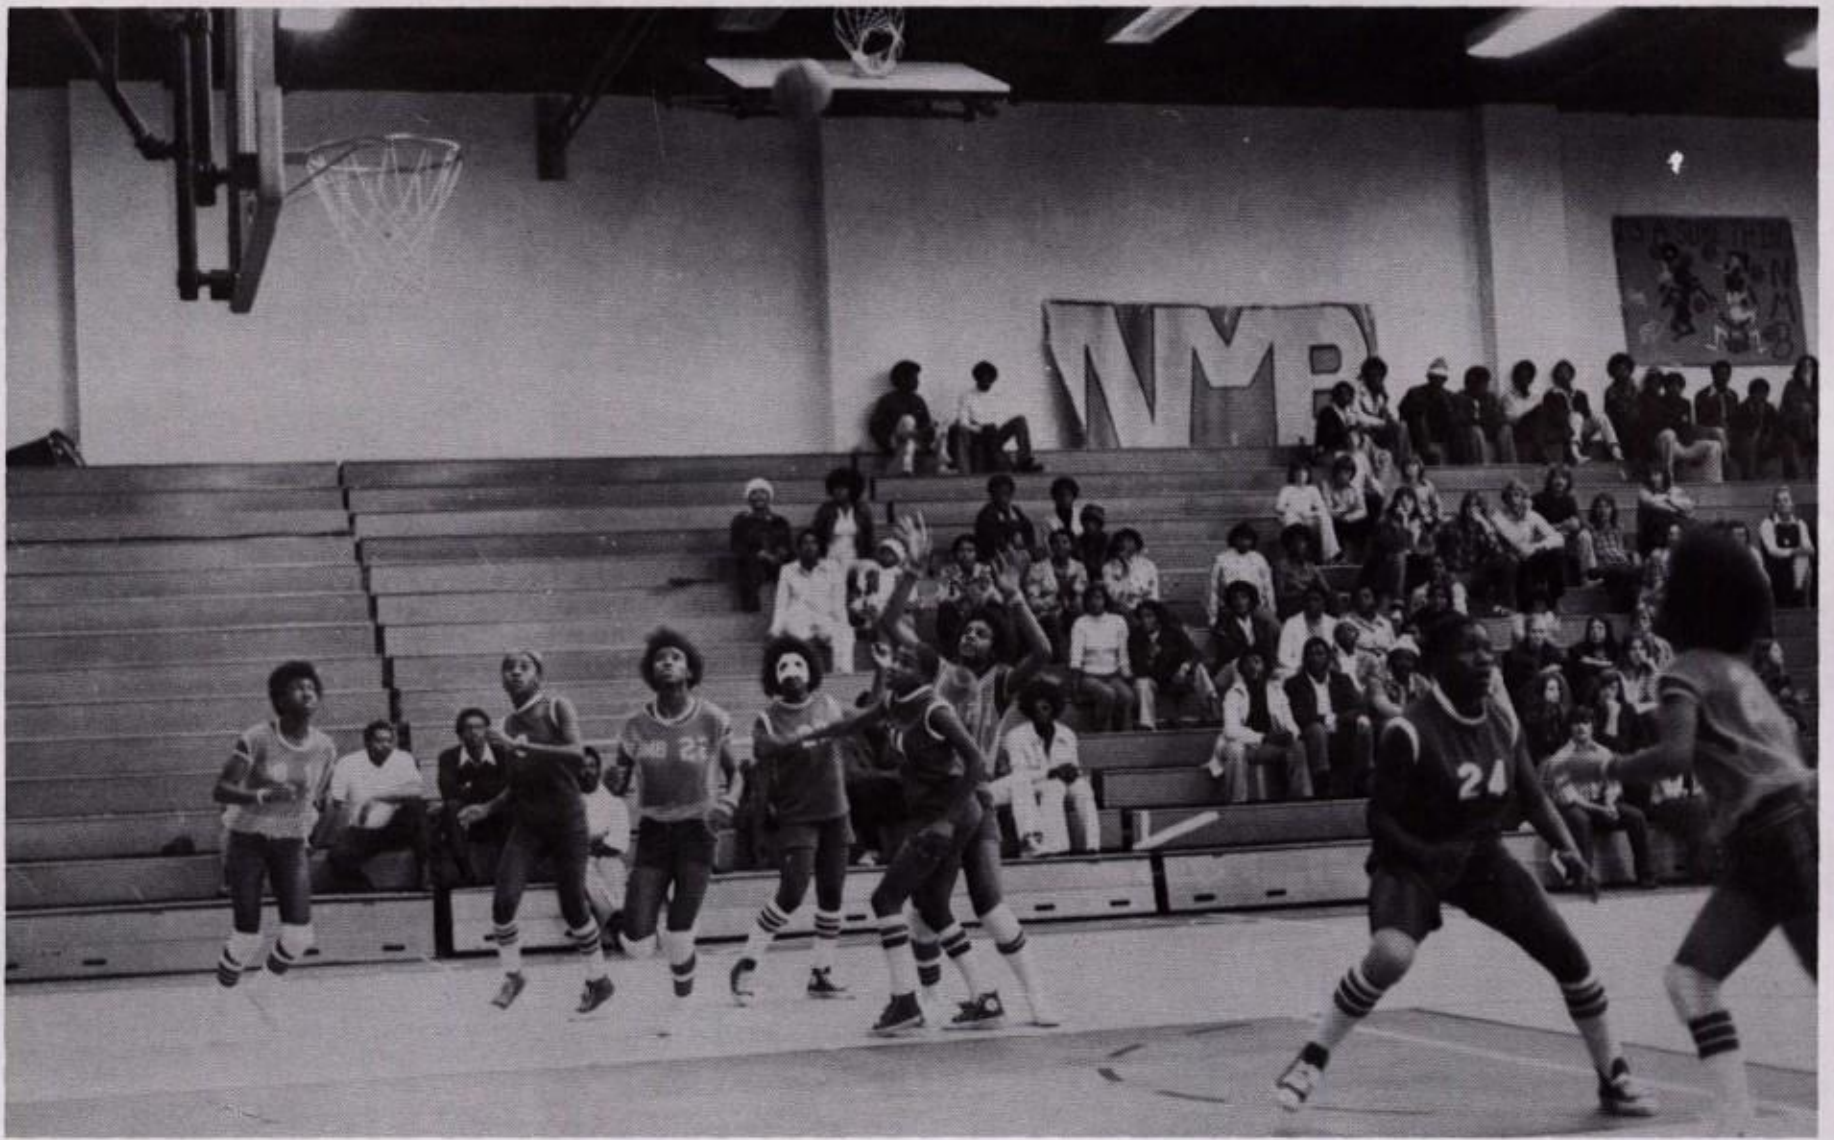

The Chiefettes were eliminated by Rains-Centenary as a late surge by the eventual State champs forced the NMB girls to foul and Rains won 38-27.

The Chiefettes ended the season with a 23-4 record. Coach Rivers Lynch was named Coach of the Year in the 7-AA Conference and Ina Livingston was named to the All-State girls team.

Evelyn Gause hits jumper as Chiefettes beat Rains for 7-AA Conference Championship.

Fellowship of Christian Students

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 When there is injury, pardon;
 Where there is doubt, faith;
 When there is despair, hope;
 Where there is darkness, light;
 When there is sadness, joy.
 O Divine Master, grant that
 I may not so much seek
 To be consoled, as to console;
 Not so much to be understood as
 To understand; not so much to be
 Loved as to love;
 For it is in giving that we receive;
 It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned;
 It is in dying, that we awaken to eternal life.

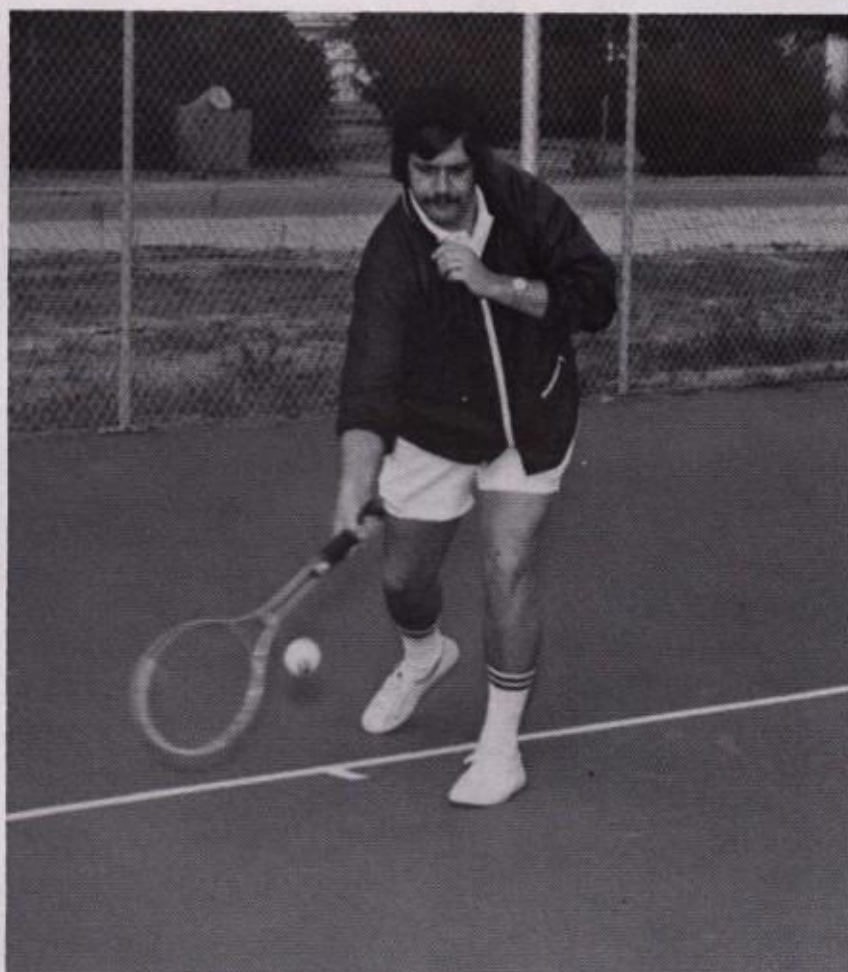

The Fellowship of Christian Students, newly originated and sponsored by Rev. Lonnie Chestnut, hopefully opened a new tradition for N.M.B.H.S. Its purpose, simply to follow the commandments and wishes of Christ and to work for the good of the school through the love of the Lord Jesus helped to draw the school closer together. In the future years, the FCS hopes to grow in love and fellowship . . . black and white . . . hand-in-hand . . . til He comes back. Praise the Lord!

Chief Staff

Mrs. Ward checks the books to make sure that the Annual Staff doesn't go over the budget.

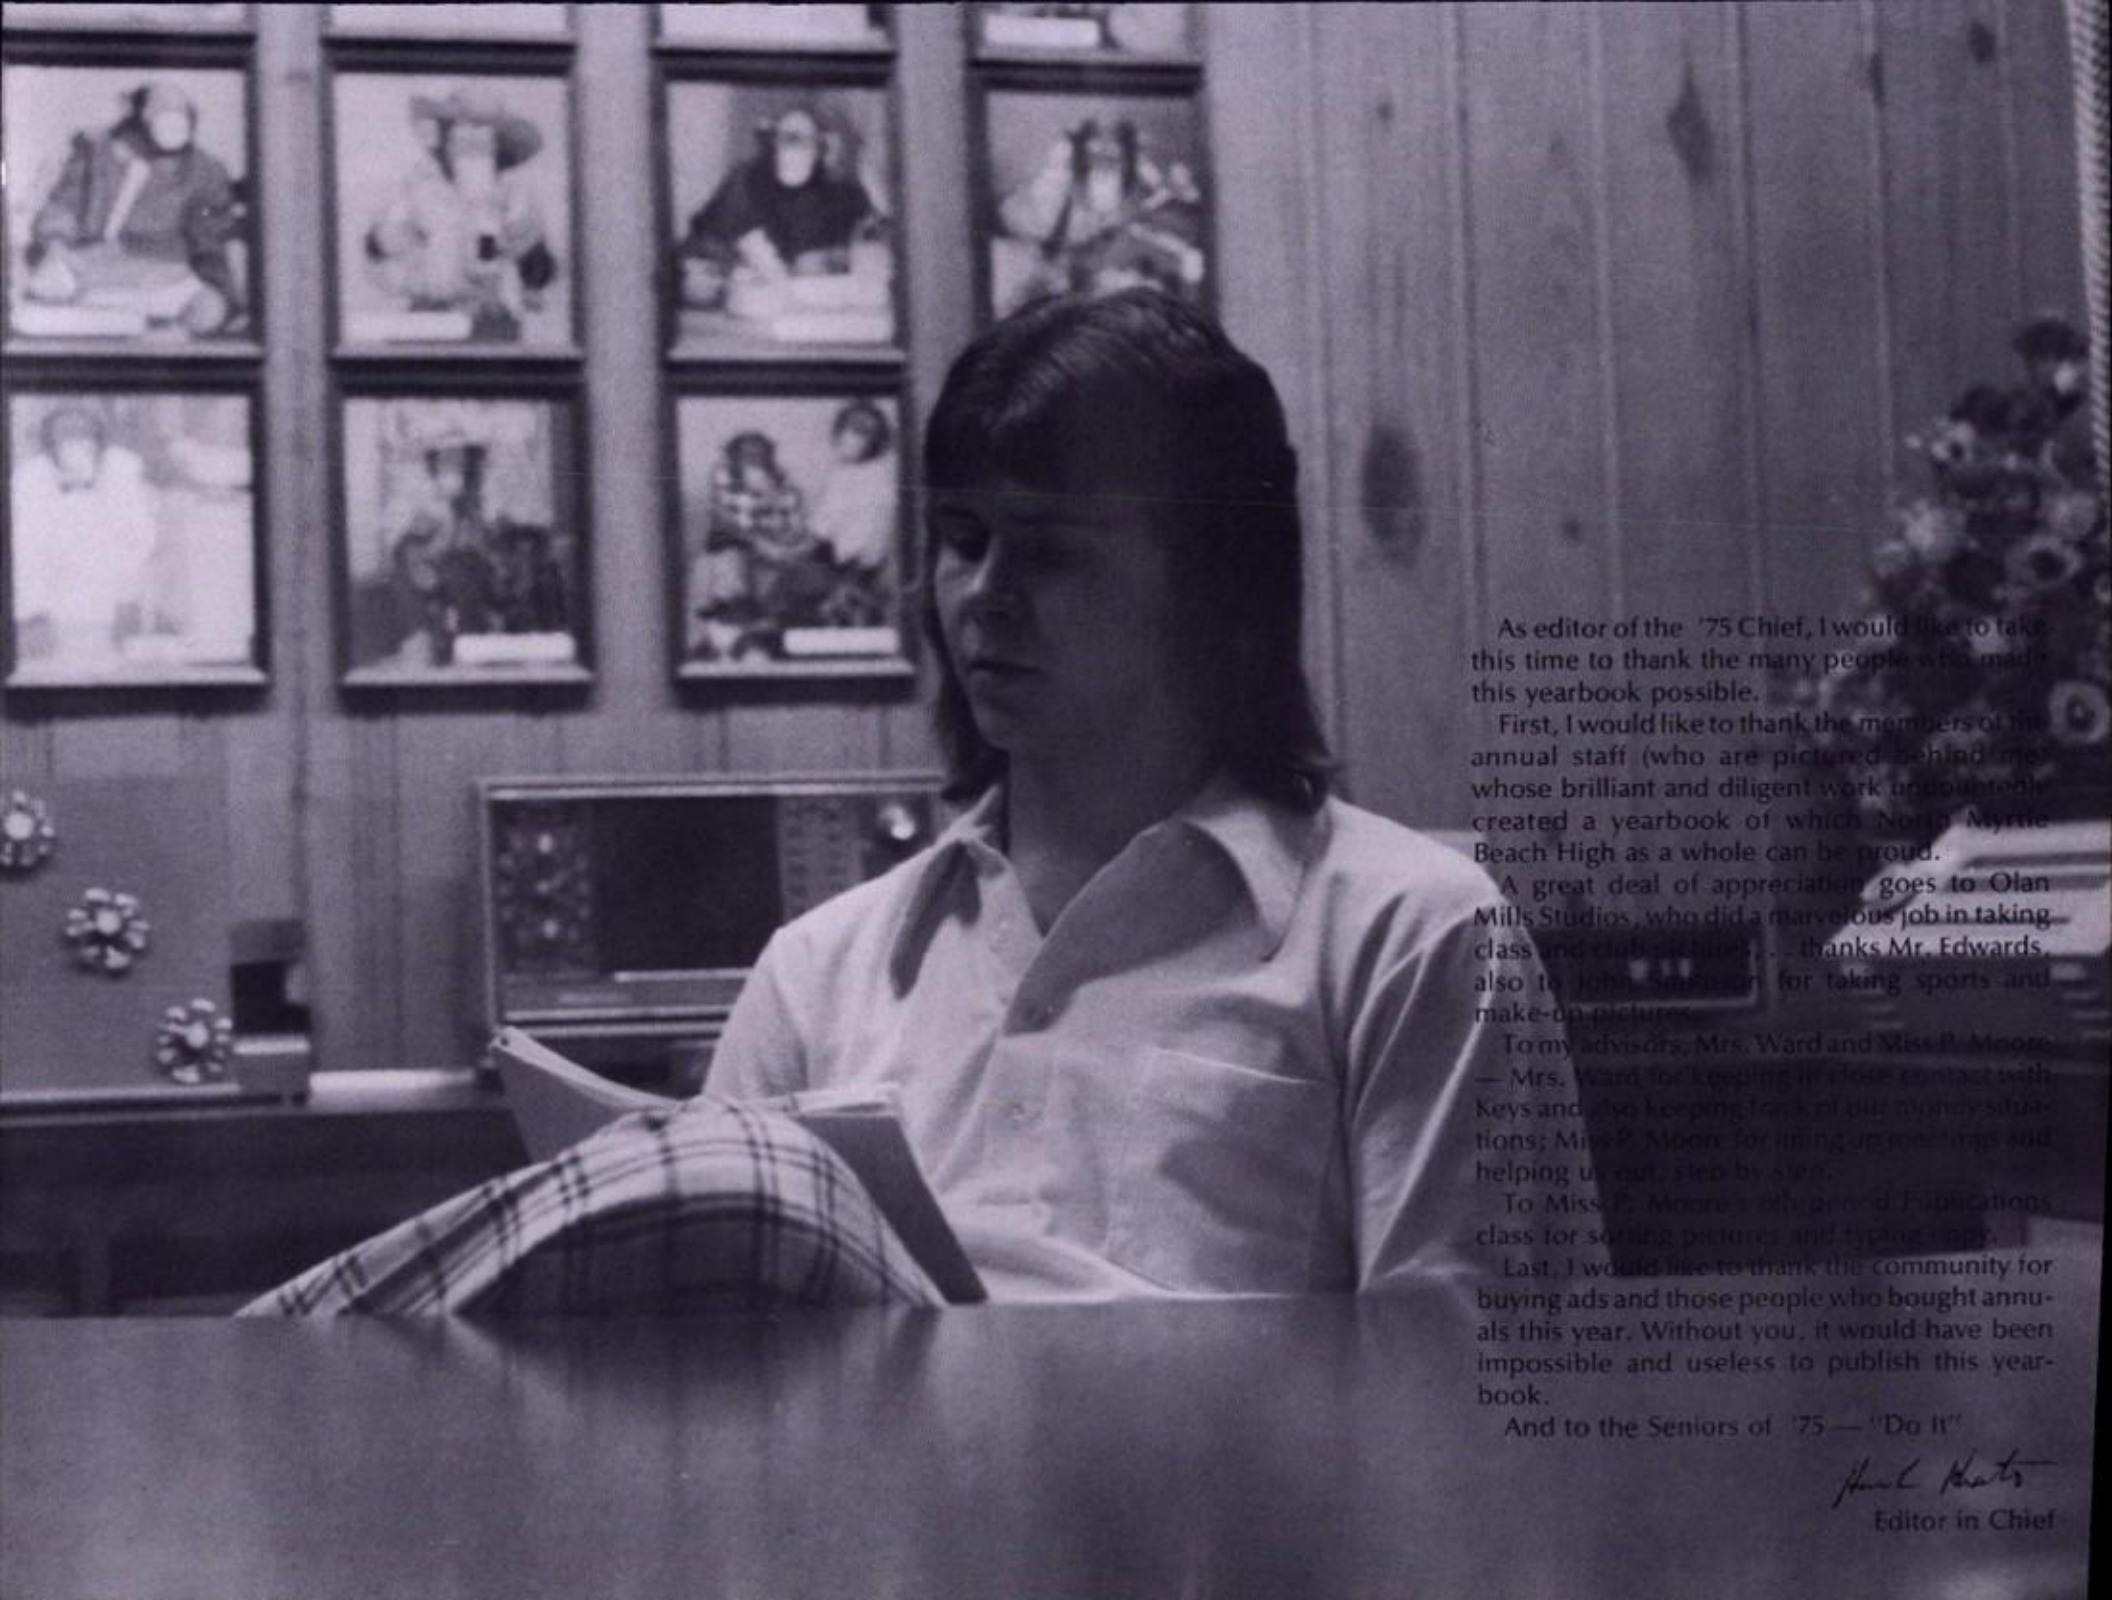

Miss P. Moore checks the latest deadline with the Keys representative.

As editor of the '75 Chief, I would like to take this time to thank the many people who made this yearbook possible.

First, I would like to thank the members of the annual staff (who are pictured behind me) whose brilliant and diligent work undoubtedly created a yearbook of which North Myrtle Beach High as a whole can be proud.

A great deal of appreciation goes to Olan Mills Studios, who did a marvelous job in taking class and club pictures... thanks Mr. Edwards, also to John Smithson for taking sports and make-up pictures.

To my advisors, Mrs. Ward and Miss P. Moore — Mrs. Ward for keeping in close contact with Keys and also keeping track of our money situation; Miss P. Moore for lining up the things and helping us out, step by step.

To Miss P. Moore's fifth period Publications class for sorting pictures and typing copy.

Last, I would like to thank the community for buying ads and those people who bought annuals this year. Without you, it would have been impossible and useless to publish this yearbook.

And to the Seniors of '75 — "Do It"

Paul K. Harts
Editor in Chief

Publications

The 1974-75 Publication Class: Janet Chestnut, Cathy Seddinger, Benji Norton, Michelle Sweatt, Terri Jordan, Sandy Argroves, Eddie Huffstetler, (not pictured — Amy Beckman).

Michael is always putting that brain of his to work.

I think this picture is fantastic.

Amy and Sandy take five.

Benji works hard to meet deadline for Annual.

Oh! No! It's Gone!

Patty looks on as Janet types copy on page 125.

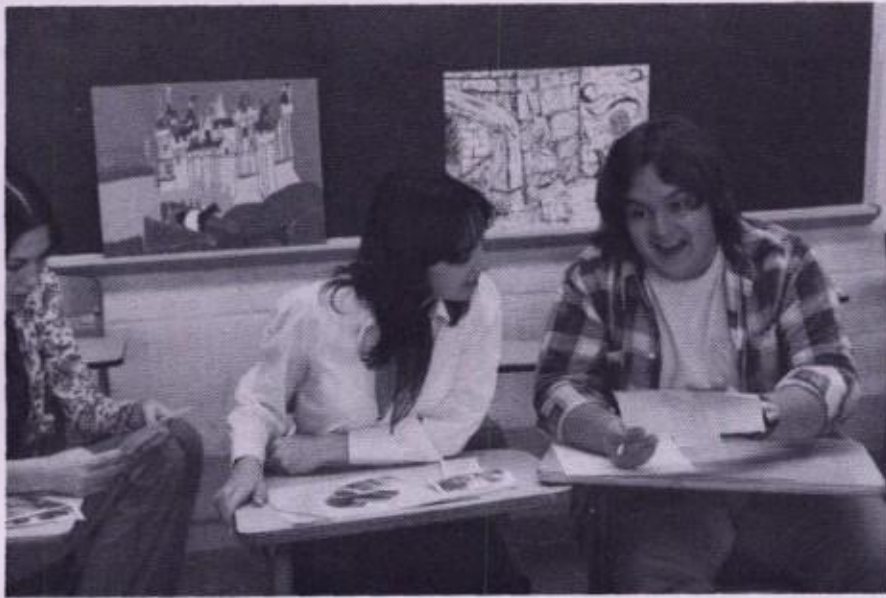

Benji concentrates hard on getting the lines straight.

Terri and Patti arrange the cheerleading pictures carefully.

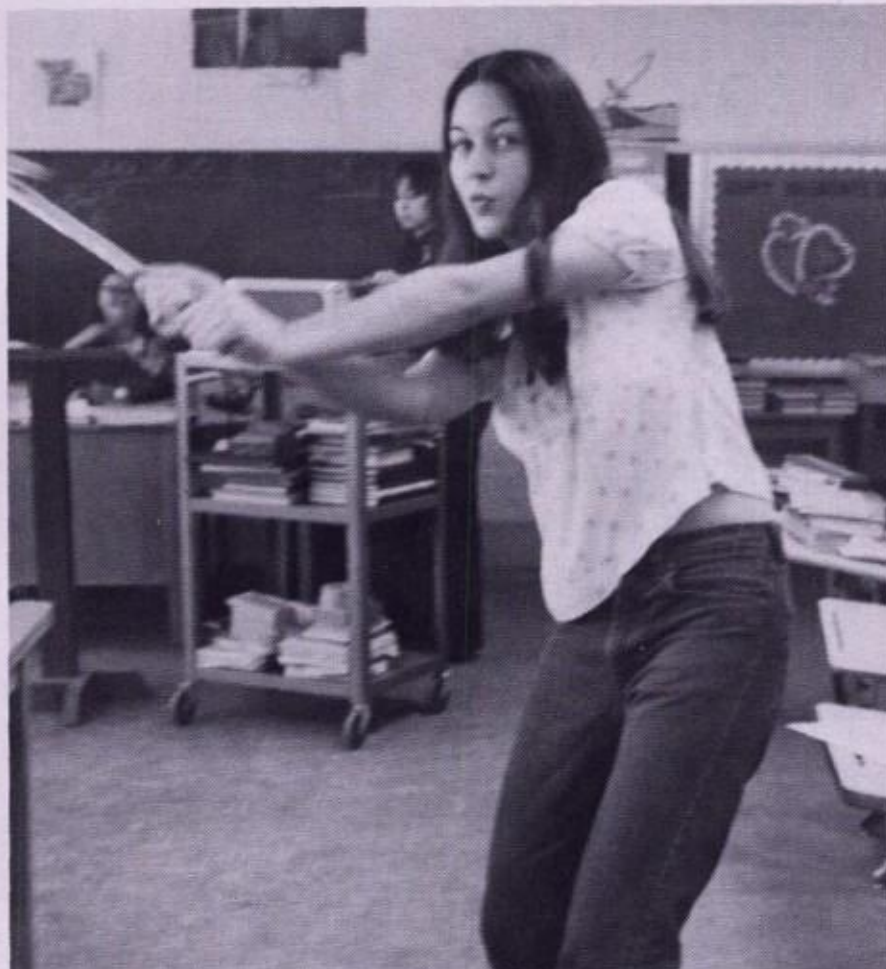

The quick wits of Sandy and Amy quipping captions for candid.

You've gotta be kidding!

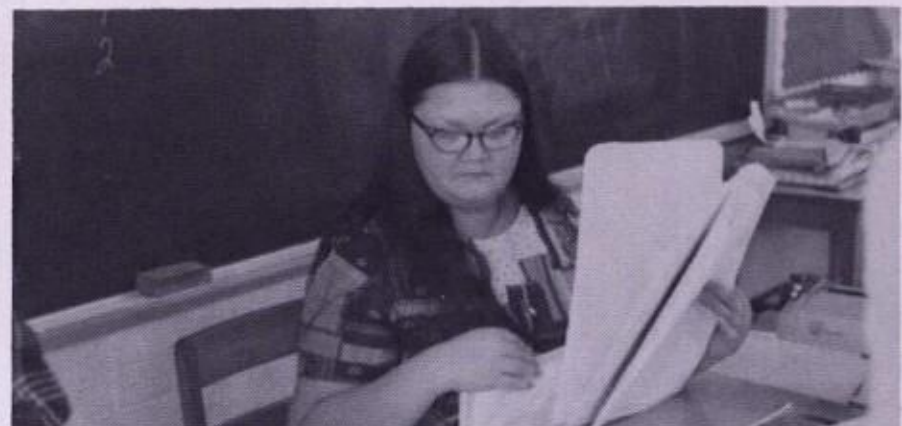

Ha! You think I'M a turkey! Look at this picture!

Swinging into action.

Michelle comes up with a brilliant idea for the front page!

The very dedicated and loving Miss P. Moore keeps her class organized.

Student Council - Democracy in Action

ALMA MATER

In the low country of South Carolina,
Near the sea so blue;
Proudly stands a mighty structure,
With the colors true.
Lift your voices, shout your praises,
Across this land of ours,
Here's to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail, North Myrtle Beach High.

Soon the time will come when We parted,
From your walls anew;
Through the years We'll always remember,
Our colors of gold and blue.
Lift your voices brave and boldly,
With loyal hearts so true,
Here's to thee our Alma Mater!
Hail! North Myrtle Beach High.

Through many toils and snares We've come,
Though trusting your ideals;
We'll spread your fame through this great universe
With words of love and cheer.
Lift your voices, Shout your praises,
Across the deep blue sea,
Here's to thee Our Alma Mater!
Hail!, North Myrtle Beach High.
